FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 27. NEW TRAIN AND NEW TIME ON THE B. & O. RAILROAD,-The pass

ule, commencing on the 29th October, as follows, Wheeling time: Leave Wheeling at 10:50 a. m.; 4:57 p. m., 6:40 p. m. Arrive at Wheeling 4:33

a. m.; 9:53 a. m.; 4:40 p. m. The additional train will be a fast on Baltimore in about sixteen hours, which is several hours of time saved on the meeting was held there on Wednesday present running.

THE ELECTION.—The election yester day passed off quietly. The weather was fine, and many persons were in attendance all day at the various voting places. A considerable amount of hard work was done by both parties. Carriages were going constantly all day,

IN LIMBO.—The Steubenville Herald of yesterday morning says that two fast young men, said to be from Wheeling, whose names were not learned, arrived in that city Tuesday evening, on the six o'clock train, and after various unsuccessful attempts to pass on the cigars. Then crossing the street they entered Keller's saloon and made some purchase, and passed on the proprietor another bill of the same denomination.

LADIES and Gentlemen are invited to By this time the officers had got word er proceedings in that direction by arresting the gentlemen and placing them in the county jail. They will probably be conveyed to Cleveland and handed over to the U. S. authorities in that city for trial. It is said the bills passed re badly executed, and all of ten dollar denomination.

POLICE COURT.-Business in the police court yesterday was quite lively. Catherine Carr, for using abusive language, was fined $5 and costs, which she paid.

Owen Conley, for abusing, in act and language, A. Fader, was fined $20 and costs, but failing to liquidate he was committed.

"Toby" Vance, for disorderly conduct, were fined, the former $20 and costs, and the two latter $10 and costs each. They were committed in lieu of payment.

charge of disorderly conduct, but found not guilty and acquitted. Another party was arraigned for using profane language, and fined $10 and costs, which was paid.

court house Aaron Kelly, of this city, presented his vote. The judge refused to accept it until Kelly took the oath. This he refused to do. He presented his vote three times, with a new youch er each time, but it was always refused, Kelly still declining to take the oath. We understand that he entered suit against the judge for refusing to take the vote. So, we presume, the matter will be tested in our Courts. Kelly has been known all along as an unprincipled rebel, lacking only the courage to take up arms. We are glad he was set

IN THE LOCK UP .- Yesterday the po lice succeeded in arresting and placing in "durance vile" one Mary Spoon, for being drunk in men's clothing. Her man alias is Charley Smith. When ar-rested she, or he, was jauntily attired in male apparel. She, or he, is well FALL and WINTER STOCK known in our community for her, or his, light fingered tricks, she, or he, being an old offender. She, or he, will be paraded this morning before the police court, when she, or he, will receive BOOTS AND SHOES

BANK ROBBERY.-Yesterday one of the workmen, named Elias Williams engaged in repairing the Merchants' and Mechanics' Bank building, stole from that institution about $500 in money. When the robbery was dis-covered, Williams was arrested. He acknowledged the their at once, and promptly refunded the money. He was committed to the lock-up and will have a hearing to-day. This is a very unfor-tunate affair for Williams, as he has hitherto always bornea good character.

A MEAN TRICK .- We learn that yes terday a voter, unfortunately of limited learning, went to the 4th ward voting place and asked for a ticket, saying h wanted to vote for Mr. Hornbrook well known copperhead of our city handed the applicant a butternut ticket, telling him that that was the kind he wanted, which ticket the voter unsuspectingly deposited in the ballot how ent on such conduct is neemsary.

SAM. SHABFLEY'S MINSTERIS.—Our fall entertainments will be continued next week by Sam. Sharpley's Minstrels. They will give two perfor mances at Washington Hall on Mon day and Tuesday evenings next. The very name of Sharpley is suggestive of a fine entertainment. His fame is as wide as the country, and his troupe will, judging from our exchanges, fully justify all expectations of pleasure in his coming.

OUR OFFICE LAST NIGHT,-While the election news was being received last night our office presented a lively scene. As the township reports came in, one after another, the result began to be figured up, and much joy was manifested by those present when it became reasonably certain that the Union cause had gained another tri-

RIVER NEWS,-The river was falling yesterday with about six feet of water in the channel. The Leanidas passed up.

The Leynidas passed down, for Saint Louis, with a fine trip and a big barge, well loaded, in tow. She took on at our landing a large lot of mules, for New Orleans.

A Horse Iven .- Among the name of the animals entered for the races yesterday at the Pittsburg horse fair we notice those of "American Star" and "Mary Ann." It will be remembered that these steeds were a tour recent fair

PROP. MACALLISTER,-The Professo rave another exhibition last night a Vashington Hall. No. 65, held by Mrs Kate Harry, living on Union street drew the principal prize-a silver

The principal present to-night will be trains on the Baltimore & Ohio Rail-road will be run on their winter sched-ule, commencing on the 29th October, as day evening by a party not entitled to it. The person having it is requested to return it. By doing so he will save trouble, as he is known

THE ELECTION AT WELLBURG,-At making the trip between Wheeling and Baltimore in about sixteen hours, which progressing finely. An enthusiastic afternoon and evening, and much goo was expected from it yesterday. It was thought the election in the county would be pretty closely contested, but no A Good Working.—One man above hauling disabled and remote persons to all others is entitled to the credit of the and from the polls. Many voters were handsome vote of Ritchietown—and challenged at the several polls, and a that man is 'Squire Hays. Early and number of votes were rejected.

The vote of the city and county, and of the State, so far as received, will be found in our paper to-day.

Early and late, in fair weather and bad, in season, the 'Squire was always at work, and his labors are richly rewarded.' The Union men of the county owe much to the 'Squire.'

CIRCUIT COURT .- Circuit Court meets this morning at 8 o'clock.
